

Sunday Stick

Hand made for you in St. Andrews Workshop

In Victorian times it was frowned upon to partake of any frivolous activity on God's day of rest. Avid golfers would quietly drop a ball on the village common, turn their stick round and practice their putting!

- Exquisitely crafted club from St. Andrews, Scotland
- Hand made construction using traditional methods
- Accurate reproduction of the actual antique club
- Retains the play "feel" of the original
- Plays as club and functions as walking stick
- Reinforced with metal rod for added support
- Personalized with your name in the St. Andrews workshop
- Shipped directly to you from Scotland
